

Come join us at this summer's Potter Marsh Bird Walks

May 20-July 29, 2017

Tuesdays, 7-9 p.m. & Saturdays, 8-10 a.m.

Photos by John Schoen

WHERE: Potter Marsh boardwalk, located at Mile 117 along the Seward Highway approximately ½ mile south of the Rabbit Creek Road exit and across from the Rabbit Creek Rifle Range.

DETAILS: Come join us for a guided walk Tuesday evenings, 7-9 pm, and Saturdays, 8-10 am, from May 20 through July 29 on the Potter Marsh boardwalk and nearby trails to identify and learn about the area's bird life. This family-friendly event is for all levels of birders, beginning to advanced. Binoculars are available for loan (no charge) and spotting scopes and guide books will be available. Walks will take place rain-or-shine, so dress accordingly. Meet your guide at the boardwalk entrance kiosk at Potter Marsh. Sponsored by Audubon Alaska and the Alaska Department of Fish and Game.

COST: Free

CONTACT: 267-2281, joe.meehan@alaska.gov.

 Audubon ALASKA